Message from the Director

Dear Sponsors and Benefactors,

The passing of His Majesty King Bhumibol of Thailand has immensely saddened the Thai people and many around the world. From this great loss, our eyes have been opened wider and we are beginning to understand better how much our beloved King had sacrificed throughout his reign in order that we could all live happily. At the same time, we reflect upon the kindness of our numerous benefactors, many of whom had helped our home year after year until their deaths. With appreciation and gratefulness, we try to live in accordance with their abundant love and sacrifice for us.

Fr. Michael Weera Phangrak
Director

▲ Our grateful thanks to Mr. Maurice Dimmock, Chairman of the Accreditation Service for International Colleges (ASIC), U.K., and President of Rose Education Foundation, England, for his long and beautiful friendship, the presentation of the new Certificate of Accreditation to Sotpattana School for the Deaf as “Premium Institution” for the next four years, and the REF support to the school’s landscaping project as well as the Orphanage’s road resurfacing project..

▲ A group of 11 secondary school students of Saleasian School, Surrey, England, led by Teachers Ann Murdoch and Sarah Elmer, paid their visit to the Pattaya Orphanage during their community service programme in Thailand. On this occasion, they were introduced to our home, and spent lovely time with our toddlers and pre-school children. Thank you so much for your love and care for kids in our care.. May God bless and keep all of you and yours always..

▲ 2016 Person of the Year Award: Heartfelt Congratulations to Ms. Saowanee Panaram, one of the two awardees of the Thai Association of Washington (TAWA) 2016 Person of the Year.. With her leadership and untiring efforts, over 1.2 million Baht has been raised through the annual Thai Dinners in Seattle, starting from 2011, for the education of children at the Pattaya Orphanage.. We are very grateful to Khun Sao for her constant support and excellent example.. May the Lord continue to bless you and yours abundantly..

▲ It’s very kind of Dentist Yun Kyu Park and his colleagues from Kyungnam University and its Graduate School of Public Administration, to visit children at the Pattaya Orphanage and Sotpattana School for the Deaf, and support them with donations as well as basic but professional dental care.. Our staff members also benefited from the services.. Special thanks to the team of Thai Shin Hwa Travel Co., Ltd

▲ Big thanks to Teacher Geraldine Greenwood, for her dedication in helping children at the Pattaya Orphanage learn more English and finishing the three-week course with the Halloween-themed Treasure Hunt Game with six challenges to review what they have learned in classes. Thanks too, to Teacher Geri’s daughter Rebecca and her friend Francesca, along with the station facilitators, including some of our older kids..

◀ Vice-Consul Laurent Frederickx from the Embassy of Belgium in Bangkok, along with Mr. Benjamin Ratel, strengthened the relation between the Embassy and the Pattaya Orphanage through the exchange of views with Rev. Fr. Michael Weera Phangrak, our executive director, and Mrs. Radchada Chomjinda, our adoption representative. Apart from spending time with tiny members of our home as well as the students of Sotpattana School for the Deaf, our guest wanted to ensure that the Embassy in Bangkok has the historic photographs of the visits of the members of the Belgian Royal Family to the orphanage two decades ago.

◀ Mr. Nixon L. Frederick, Program Director of the International Law Enforcement Academy (ILEA) in Bangkok, his staff and training team, and the 70 police trainees from different Asian countries, kindly paid the Pattaya Orphanage a visit, got to know our home through the briefing of our child welfare director Suwanna Cheownawin, held our toddlers in their arms, as well as contributed supporting fund for kids in our care.. Grateful thanks to the organizers, especially Pol.Col. Napop Chunchakan, ILEA Chief of Academic Affairs, and Pol.Lt.Col. Tuangboon Supakovit, for their second visit..
